Description

This Cannes central rental apartment is located at just a 10-minute walk from the Palais des Festival in the striking medieval district of Cannes, Le Suquet. Occupying the 2nd floor of the building without an elevator, this Cannes rental apartment will make sure that you are burning enough calories per day even while travelling. Away from the glitter and glam of the Cannes Boulevard de la Croisette, this charming old town, made up of steep cobbled alleys is a treasure to be explored. This part of the city enjoys its own laid back pace with fine wine and dining on every corner of these idyllic streets. The apartment features elegant and rustic interior decor and offers a sofa bed in the living room along with a 4-person dining table. The kitchen is equipped with all the required appliances to ensure your comfortable stay. The 2 bedrooms each come with a double bed, and the 2 bathrooms come with a shower and toilet each. This Cannes apartment is best suited for you if your plan is to attend an event at the convention centre as well as enjoy the authentic French vibes in your free time. Don't forget that you are in the middle of all the action- you can easily walk everywhere from your new headquarters!
