Description

The CANA001295 is a very basic and economic studio in the center of Cannes, just a 3 minutes walk to the Palais des Festivals and the Croisette. It is located on the 2nd floor of an old building without lift. The studio measures about 25 m² and is comprised of one room with a living / dining area with 1 double bed, a television, a corner kitchen, and a shower room with toilet. There is internet access available. This apartment is ideal for someone looking for a home base just a short walk from the convention center, shops and restaurants. There is another simple studio in the same building, in case you are looking for 2 studios close to each other!
