Description

Is your group looking for a Cannes rental apartment for an upcoming conference or festival? This modern and entirely refurbished 2-bedroom Cannes apartment is situated on the 8th floor of the famous Grand Hotel residency, with an elevator. An insider tip- Located on the most famous Cannes street, the Boulevard de La Croisette, this residency is the ideal place to network and build valuable connections during the events, as lots of parties and networking sessions take place right here! The entire Cannes event apartment carries an elegant black and white colour scheme. The living room features marble flooring and is furnished with a plush velvet sectional sofa, places facing the flat screen tv. There is a fully-equipped open kitchen along with a breakfast counter and stools. The bright living room opens to the lovely wooden terrace with views. Garnished with plants and patio furniture, the terrace offers breathtaking views of the Mediterranean and the Croisette. Both of the bedrooms come with an ensuite bathroom, a double bed and a built-in wall closet. The bedrooms carry the classy colour theme of the apartment and are decorated with black and white wall pictures of famous celebrities and movie stars. One of the bathrooms is equipped with showers and there is an independent toilet in the common area for guests. If you're searching for a Cannes apartment with a bit of luxury and gorgeous views for your next visit, this is a great option then!
