Description

The CANA001441 is a small 25 m2 studio on the 3rd floor (with lift) of the Palais Miramar, a beautifully renovated residence located on the Croisette near the Carlton Hotel. The apartment is located on the back side of the building, with views onto the interior garden from the small balcony. The living space consists of 2 single beds which can be made separately for 2 people, or pushed together to make a double bed. There is also a television, a small dining room table, and a very small kitchen in the living. There is a bathroom with a shower and toilet.
