Description

If you're looking to rent a centrally located apartment in Cannes for your group's visit to one of the numerous events in the Palais conference centre, you simply cannot go wrong with this apartment. Located at just a kilometre away from the Palais des Festivals and a 3-minute walk from the Croisette and the beach, this Cannes corporate accommodation can be your ideal resting, working and meeting place. The dynamic setup in the living room can be utilised as a coworking space. Under the high ceiling, the living room is furnished with a wooden dining table, an open kitchen in the corner, a sofa bed and a couch where you can snug as a bug in the rug while watching a movie on the large TV. The wooden floor in the living space is partially covered by a comfy rug. The glass display cabinet is stuffed with modern sculptures and book that you'll definitely enjoy reading on a warm and sunny Cannes beach day. The walls of the entire apartment exhibit decorations and wall art, complementing the overall look of the space. Fancy lighting in the entire apartment might tempt you to invite some guests over for a small cocktail party. The grey-black themed kitchen is fully equipped and comes with matching bar stools. The stairs lead you to the first floor of this duplex group apartment where you'll find the bedrooms. Both the bedrooms are provided with 2 single beds each, with an option to join them and make a double bed if needed. The apartment also has 2 bathrooms that come with standingshower in each. Needless to say, the internet connection flows smoothly through the entire property.
