Description

Before you start reading, a word of advice - the following Cannes rental villa might influence you to leave your city and moves to Cannes for good. Read at your own risk. Immersed in a captivating landscape, the villa is an ideal option for you if you want to enjoy the tranquillity and stay connected to nature. Located just 2 km away from the Cannes centre, you will feel at home with this elegant yet conventional environment, where you and your team can unwind and rejuvenate after an exhausting day of conferences and events. The prosperous and serene Californie Pezou is famous for its ritzy villas and mesmerizing views of the Cannes Bay. Additionally, it is also known as being one of the most private Cannes districts. The magnificent outdoor garden of this 4-bedroom luxurious Cannes villa features a standout kidney shaped pool with natural stone paving. The outdoor dining table can seat 6 people and is placed next to the lounge seating arrangements, where your entire team can sit in the morning while enjoying a glass of fresh juice and discuss the plan of action for the day. The villa garden is provided with abundant space to invite friends or associates over and enjoy a nice sunny barbecue lunch or a fancy cocktail party, followed by dinner. You will also find sunbathing chairs and a swing next to the swimming pool. The garden leads to the living room on the ground floor with high-gloss French furniture and features a double lounge, a grand designer sofa and an indoor dining table for eight people. The villa interiors are enriched contemporary design and aristocratic furnishing that transmits an inviting ambience to space. The convenient kitchen is well-balanced to prepare large team dinners or just to sit back on the breakfast bar and enjoy your morning coffee. The master bedroom is also situated on this level, and it comes with an attached bathroom complete with a bathtub. The first floor contains 3 bedrooms, each with single beds and ensuite bathrooms with showers. Additionally, air conditioning and Satellite TV are also available.
