Description

If you're looking for luxurious comfort while staying in Cannes, look no further. Just imagine yourself opposite the Palais des Festivals in this contemporary residence above the luxury Christian Dior boutique. This residence with concierge service welcomes you through a discreet entrance on Rue des Belges. Once on the 8th floor, you enter a welcoming living room which offers views of the bay and the Palais des Festivals. The white, fully-equipped kitchen is independent. The master bedroom opens out on to the terrace. 2 single beds are to be found and can be converted into a double if needed, offering views from the comfort of your bed. There is a bathroom adjoined which offers a toilet and shower. The 2nd bedroom is at the back of the apartment and provides a high-end double bed as well as an en-suite bathroom with shower. For extra convenience, there is air conditioning, Internet, and a washing machine.
