Description

Whether it's your first time attending a Cannes festival or conference, or you're a seasoned veteran, you'll know that the Boulevard de la Croisette is where everyone wants to have their rental apartment. This stunning 2-bedroom Cannes group accommodation is located on this very street, in a secure and luxurious residency building. The spacious living room opens up to a terrace overlooking the Cannes Bay, offering ample amounts of natural lighting, as well as providing the makings for the ideal spot for host a private business meeting or lunch with your colleagues during your next Cannes event. The living room is furnished with class design, plush leather couches, and is connected to a fully-equipped kitchen. If you're looking to splurge a bit on French wine, which we highly recommend, this Cannes rental apartment comes with a wine cellar to keep your bubbly perfectly chilled. You can enjoy your breakfasts and team meetings at the large dining room table to start your day off with energy as you head to the Palais des Festivals for your Cannes event. A few extra touches to make your stay even more comfortable are the induction hot plate stovetop, as well as the Nespresso machine with complimentary capsules. This waterfront apartment offers a 18m2 balcony where you can have friends over for drinks after attending your events, or even host a small intimate dinner party. Both bedrooms each have a double bed, and can sleep up to 4 guests total. There are 2 bathrooms, both with showers and toilets. Air conditioning is available throughout the apartment, as is Internet. The group rental apartment is located only 6 minutes' walk to the Palais des Festivals, making for an ideal and extra-convenient walk to your conference.
