Description

If you're looking for a modern and luxurious apartment to accommodate your company's executives and delegates arriving in Cannes to attend a festival or an event, then look no further. This luxurious Cannes rental apartment is just an 8-minute walk to Palais des Festivals, a 3-minute walk to the beach, and is positioned on the corner of the famous shopping street, Rue d'Antibes. The ever-vibrant Rue d'Antibes is a short walk from the Cannes railway station, and offers a wide range in the shopping experience, from low-cost shops to high-end designer stores. It features some of the best Cannes cafes where you can enjoy short breaks during your conference. The white, black, and beige colour scheme throughout the apartment creates a very relaxing atmosphere. The living room is an excellent spot to host a small indoor reception or a formal meeting. The state-the-of-art lounge area, dining room and kitchen offer a combination of convenience, style and comfort, along with trendy features. Hanging candle chandeliers over the dining table and lounge area lights up the living room. The new and fully-fitted kitchen is equipped with all the modern stainless steel appliances including microwave, toaster, oven and a tea kettle as well as plenty of storage space. The long balcony is accessible through the living room. There is another rear private terrace which can be accessed through the bedroom. The apartment features 4 spacious and comfortable bedrooms. 2 of them come with double beds and the other 2 comes with 2 single beds. There are also 4 bathrooms, 2 with bathtubs and 2 with standing showers. This Cannes luxurious accommodation for groups is perfect for you and your team if you like to seek those extra touches of luxury during your stay during your upcoming corporate event.
