Description

This newly renovated 2 bedroom Cannes group accommodation is nestled on the 2nd floor of a secure residency and is just 100-metres from Le Gare de Cannes, the train station. The Palais des Festivals is just a short 6-minute walk from here. The apartment is situated on Rue des Serbes which has been recently revamped, modernised and energised by high-quality facilities. Accessing public transport will be quite comfortable for you when you stay here. The apartment can easily sleep a group of 5 arriving in Cannes for attending the many Cannes events. The open living area is furnished with a sofa bed facing the wall mounted tv. A complete kitchenette comes with a counter height dining set. The plain and elegant living room features ceiling lights and opens onto a cute balcony where you can step out to get some fresh air. The bedrooms have tall and curtained windows that allow natural sunlight in the rooms. Both the bedrooms come with a double bed each. There is a bathroom with a shower along with an independent toilet. The amenities include Internet, air conditioning, and a washing machine.
