Description

Turning off the holiday mode after staying in this astonishing Palm Beach villa won't be an easy transition for sure. Steps away from the port and the beach, this Cannes party villa is positioned to enjoy the most exciting and vibrant Cannes neighbourhood on the famous Croisette Boulevard. The living room opens up to the front deck lounge with couches and dining, a spacious garden and a swimming pool offering views of the sea, perfect if you wish to entertain private event gathering. The garden is surrounded by bushes and offers a large grassy area, a swimming pool, and lounge chairs for sunbathing. There is also a large terrace, part of which is covered to get some shade on those hot and sunny Cannes days. The semi-connected dining room offers a large table that can be utilised for meetings if desired. The interiors are sculpted with exceptional craftsmanship and unparalleled amenities. If interior designing is an art, then the designer of this Cannes villa is undoubtedly the master. The entire villa feels like an art exhibition and will offer plenty of inspiration to keep you ready for your event. Another highlight of this phenomenal Cannes villa is the separate office, which is furnished in a reception room style. There is a separate and complete kitchen with deep granite island as well as an additional sitting room. All the bedrooms come with double bed and open up to different gardens on the premises. The walls of the bedrooms are graced with tasteful paintings. There are 3 bathrooms with a bathtub, 2 with a shower room and 7 toilets in all. Every detail in this Cannes luxury rental villa has been thoughtfully considered and executed. And yes, there is also a massage room, if you want to take relaxation to the next level.
