Description

This 2-bedroom Cannes apartment is situated on the 3rd floor of a building with an elevator and is located on the famous shopping street Rue d'Antibes. You can step outside your door and have access to some of the greatest stores in Cannes and fresh pastries to start your day off right! It's also in a good location if you are in Cannes for a conference as it's a 14-minute walk to the Palais des Festivals. Need some downtime by the waves? Take a walk on the boardwalk and you will reach the beach in a short 5-minutes. The living room of this apartment includes white walls and has an overall beige tone, which contrasts well with the colourful throw pillows and carpet. There is an enormous antique mirror that greatly amplifies the space, and it fits well with the vintage-style light purple armchair. The living room is very luminous with large glass windows that offer access to a terrace. When you walk out onto the terrace you can sit on the patio furniture and enjoy a morning cup of coffee and watch the hustle and bustle of the street below. Attached to the living room, there is an open-plan kitchen that is completely equipped and modern. There is a single basin sink, an electric stove, microwave, toaster, and coffee machine. The master bedroom offers 2 single beds that can be separated or kept as a double bed. There are also 2 night stands with lamps and a flat-screen TV on the wall for your viewing pleasure. The highlight of this bedroom is that it has access to the terrace and there is another patio set right outside the door. The other bedroom comes with a double bed, a large window that lets in lots of light and has a TV as well. The bathroom has a double sink, an Italian shower, and a toilet. This apartment also comes with WiFi, so if you are here for a conference and need to send some late night or early morning emails, this is the place for you.
