Description

This ground floor apartment is centrally located in Cannes behind the Grand Hotel and only takes about 10 minutes to walk to the Palais des Festivals. It's also close to the Rue d'Antibes, which is great for dining out and shopping. The highlight of this apartment is the enclosed teak terrace that has potted plants and overhanging branches, as well as a wicker chair set with a table so you can enjoy the sunshine in your own private paradise. The living room is bright and spacious and offers access to the terrace. There is a large square sofa with colourful throw pillows as well as a chair and dining set that seats 4 people. The kitchen is modern and comes with a stove, microwave, coffee maker, and washing machine. The wall has a picture of a castle, so you will feel like a royal while making your morning coffee! The master bedroom comes with a double bed and ensuite bathroom with a shower and toilet. The other bedroom comes with a double bed and also has an ensuite shower. There is a guest toilet for your convenience for when you host a great cocktail gathering on your terrace. The apartment also has air conditioning and double glazed windows to keep out the noise.
