Description

This 2-bedroom apartment is situated on the 3rd floor of a building with an elevator and is in a great location for attending a conference in Cannes. It's just an 8-minute walk along the famous Croisette to reach the Palais des Festivals. If you want to make a stop at the beach you're only a few minutes away. This apartment is decorated in contemporary style with neutral and botanical colours. The living room includes a cream coloured sectional sofa bed with yellow and white throw pillows. The paintings of trees, water, and flowers above the sofa creates a calm ambience. There is a wooden coffee table and dining set that seats up 5 people and there is also a large flat screen TV. If you want some fresh air you can open the large windows, but on those hot summer days you can use the air conditioner. The kitchen is completely separate and small, but fully equipped including a dishwasher. The master bedroom offers 2 single beds that can be separated or kept as a double bed. There are also 2 night stands with lamps and a large window that can be opened to let in the morning sun. The other bedroom comes with a double bed, and while there is no window that opens to the outside, there is glass that allows in natural light. The bathroom has a single basin sink, an Italian shower, and a toilet. It's decorated in style and also comes with a washing machine. This apartment also comes with WiFi, so if you need to do some late night emails, this is the place for you!
