Description

This modern 1 bedroom Cannes group apartment is ideal for those who need a perfectly peaceful retreat after a long day of attending events and meetings. Located on Rue Marceau, it just an 8-minute walk to the Palais des Festivals and even a shorter walk to the beach. The neighbourhood of this newly refurbished Cannes rental apartment showcases urban elegance and consists of the main shopping street, Rue d'Antibes. This loft-style apartment features impressive modern interiors along with exposed medieval stone walls in the living room. The stone walls of this unique Cannes rental apartment are complemented with smooth and seamless hardwood flooring. The sectional sofa in the living room can sleep another person if you wish. You'll find all the needed kitchenware in the small kitchenette. The warm wooden flooring and the alarmingly smooth texture of the kitchen cabinets and the fitted storage units make the space warm and welcoming. The apartment consists of 1 double room and 2 single beds on the mezzanine. The mezzanine bed, accessible through the living room will be the trendiest and most pleasing arrangement you'll ever see. Provided with table lamps and a lush and cosy rug, the 2 beds can also be joined together if you wish. The double bedroom lets in plenty of natural light inside through the windows and carries a similar design pattern as the living room. The bathroom comes with flawless texture and stylish accent details. You'll find the wooden frame of the sink stocked with freshly folded towels. It consists of a standing shower and a toilet. The apartment can comfortably sleep a group of 5 people.
